BURGLARS CAPTURED,

And the Proof is Pretty Strong
Against Both of Them.

EXCITING FIGHT WITH ONE THIEF

By a Man who Awoke to Find him in the House—The Burglar Narrowly Escapes being Killed, and has his Clothes Torn from him—The Same Men Probably Guilty of an Earlier Attempt.

The unusually large number of burglaries and attempts at burglary or robbery recently reported in and about the city have put the police on their mettle. Yesterday they arrested and lodged in jail two men who are believed, on strong evidence, to have been the two engaged in a burglary on the South Side yesterday morning at an early hour, and who in all probability also attempted to enter a house on the Island before that.

The South Side residence entered was that of John Campbell, a well known roller at the Belmont mill. He makes good wages, and is supposed to have about the house usually a little ready cash—enough to make it worth while for a burglar to pay him a call. He lives at 2131 Market street.

Yesterday morning in the wee sma' hours Campbell awoke to find a thief in his room. He sprang from bed and grasped hold of the man, and a struggle ensued, the thief finally succeeding in pulling out of his coat and vest, of which his assailant had a firm hold. The garments were pretty badly torn in the struggle.

Seeing that his man was about to escape, Campbell picked up a revolver, and placing its muzzle within a short distance of the burglar's stomach, fired. Just as he did so, however, Mrs. Campbell, who had been aroused by the confusion, struck his arm down so that the ball did not strike the thief, and in the confusion he escaped.

The police were attracted by the sound of the shot, and went to the house and got the coat, vest and hat of the man, with a description. From the clothing several officers suspected a man they had seen on the street, James Laville, of Mingo Junction. He had been seen with two other men, one of whom was known. From the character of the robbery it was thought two men were engaged. The slats had been cut from a shutter, the shutter opened and the window forced up.

Yesterday morning Officer Truscher arrested one of the men seen with Laville, known as Jimmie Kearns. He told so many things known to be false that he was taken before Squire Gillespy, who committed him to jail in default of $1,000 bail.

Last evening James Laville was arrested by Officer Moran. He had secured a hat somewhere, but was still in his shirt sleeves. He admitted that the clothes captured by Campbell were his, but said he lost them at Benwood. His story differed radically from Kearns's, and he, too, was committed to jail in default of $1,000 bail by Squire Gillespy. He was found in Fisher's saloon.

Before the Campbell episode two men tried to break into Mr. Dorsey's, on South Front street, Island, but were seen by a lady, who screamed. The men fled, followed by the police. It is known that Laville and Kearns crossed from the Island about the right time to have been in that robbery, also.

IN SQUIRE GILLESPIE'S COURT.

James Hickman Gets a Good-Sized Slice of Justice.

James Hickman, charged with robbing William Creighton, a fellow boarder at John McGannon's, in East Wheeling, was up before Squire Gillespie last evening. He received several good doses of justice for his weakness for taking property that did not belong to him. For stealing several small articles from Creighton he was fined $15 and costs and twenty days in jail, and for tearing up a time-book and trespass $5 and costs or ten days in jail. In addition he was fined $15 and costs and twenty days in jail for stealing from John McGannon. He will have to serve fifty days in jail without the fines and costs, which were not paid.

Frank Swinn, for common drunkenness, was sent to jail for sixty days. William Wiedebusch, charged by Annie Tice with interfering with her peace, was sent to jail to await a hearing, which will take place to-day.

Another Robbery.

Last night Nellie Clifford, landlady at 930 Main street, and Mamie Johnson, of her house, were arrested by Officer Herbert and committed to jail by Squire Gillespie in default of $1,000 bail each on a charge of robbing William Alt, an oil well rigger from Washington, Pa., of $115. His story was pretty straight, and there was corroborative evidence to support it.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.

Unusual interest is already felt in the Elks' annual outing at Wheeling Park, August 10.

MAYER'S brass band has been engaged by the coal miners' union to head that organization in the parade on labor day.

CLERK Hook yesterday issued a marriage license to John W. Schmidt and Emma Baker, both aged twenty-five, and both residents of Fulton.

JOHN MEHLMANN, the Virginia street grocer, has a new and stylish delivery wagon and a new horse. This is a sign of enterprise that deserves encouragement.

The fire alarm yesterday afternoon was caused by a small blaze in the roof of Mr. Hohman's house, on Seventeenth street west of Woods. No damage to speak of was done.

The annual reunion of the First and Twelfth West Virginia Volunteer Infantry and Battery D will be held in this city on September 19, the anniversary of the battle of Winchester.

The double team of the Vigilant engine will be loaned to the police department for the patrol wagon while the Vigilant is in the shop, or till the new team for the wagon arrives.

CHARLES HELLING, of Martin's Ferry, was arrested last night by Officer Sealy for carrying a slungshot. After being locked up for some time he was dismissed on giving surety for his fine.

Mrs. SCHUMPF, who lives out on Baltimore street, yesterday complained to the police that at midnight the night before ten men were loafing about her home and annoying her seriously. One of them kicked in her door. She wanted the whole party arrested, but could give no names.

YESTERDAY Harry McKown, of Adams & McKown, who had been doing some work at Samuel Busby's place, on Short creek, brought to the INTELLIGENCER office a bunch of new oats which is a fine specimen. The oats are large and well filled, and if they represent the average the yield must be large.

YESTERDAY afternoon during the excitement occasioned by the East Wheeling fire alarm, a twelve months old child of William Wagner, on Eoff street, had a narrow escape. Every one was out watching the engines and the child became entangled in the banisters guarding the second story porch and hung over the pavement for some minutes, kicking and screaming. Two men rushed to the rescue, and succeeded in saving it.

Dagos Discharged.

John Porter company shut down its fire brick works at New Cumberland yesterday for repairs, and on doing so discharged all the dagos who have been employed there, and whose employment caused so much trouble. It is understood when the works resume native workmen will be employed.

The coming woman can be healthy. She will be, if she's wisely cared for. As she enters womanhood, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription builds up and strengthens the system and regulates the functions. It's a supporting tonic, and a quieting, strengthening nervine. It corrects and cures all those delicate derangements and weaknesses peculiar to the sex. In every case for which it's recommended, the "Favorite Prescription" is guaranteed to give satisfaction. If there's no help, there's no pay. It does all that's claimed for it, or the money is refunded. It's a risky way to sell it—but it isn't your risk.

The manufacturers take all the risk by selling them on trial! It's an insult to your intelligence for any dealer to attempt to substitute other medicines for those, by recommending them to be "just as good," only that he may make a larger profit.
